A new prestigious Scavolini Store opens in Burgos (Spain)

14/01/2015

A new prestigious Scavolini Store has opened its doors in Burgos on 11th December in the presence of a crowd of VIPs.

Situated at the ground floor of a prestigious city centre building of enormous historical and artistic value, the Scavolini Store in Burgos is just a short distance away from Plaza Mayor, Teatro Principal and the famous Fórum Evolución.

This elegant design space covering 110 square metres and with over 15 linear metres of window space, hosts a representative selection of Scavolini kitchens, including Scenery, Tetric, Liberamente and Evolution, and two solutions in the new Scavolini Bathrooms range: Aquo and Rivo. Run by Angel Maria Renedo Orcaso who has ten years of experience with the Company, the store is aimed at interior decoration professionals and the general public as well. On 12th December the Scavolini Store in Burgos dedicated a second inauguration day to the public.

Another important sales outlet within the Spanish territory; another step forward in the expansion of Scavolini's sales network in Spain, where Scavolini's twenty year experience in the Spanish market meets the enthusiasm of the most qualified professionals in the sector.
